

School For Training On Fair Grounds

First Class Starts Sunday With Only Officers Attending

Twenty captains and troop sergeants of the Missouri State Highway Patrol will attend a week-long officers' training school at the Missouri State Fair grounds Sunday.

This school will be followed by three more schools, fifty highway patrolmen attending one week each.

Patrol superintendent M. Stanley Ginn, with two patrolmen, and a chief, was in Sedalia today making preliminary arrangements for the arrival of the officers Sunday. They will be lodged on the fair grounds, occupying the administration building.

Re-Train Men

The purpose of the school is to re-train all officers and men who are now in the highway patrol. They will have rifle shooting, pistol shooting, and all necessary drilling. When permissible the training will be outside, but if the weather is bad they will be held in one of the buildings.

According to Ginn the men will also study problems of war-time civilian defense and work out uniform policies for all patrol units.

Meals On Grounds

All meals will be served in the dining room of the administration building. Superintendent Ginn brought a chef from Jefferson City today who will remain until some local person, or persons is found who may be placed in charge.

All groceries, milk and meat will be purchased in Sedalia, and officers here today were also arranging for the supplies.

Looking For Former Teachers

KANSAS CITY, April 14—(P)—Refresher courses will be offered in Missouri's six teacher training institutions for retired or former teachers who contemplate returning to the classroom to help relieve an acute shortage of instructors because of the war.

At a conference yesterday of presidents of the six institutions, recommendations for a general war-time speed-up in state colleges were approved.

Lloyd W. King, state school superintendent, said local boards of education were being encouraged to "explore reservoirs of inactive teachers" in their localities to prepare for an impending shortage. He said, however, that only persons who previously met state requirements for teachers would be permitted to take the non-credit refresher courses.

Represented at the conference were the University of Missouri, Southeast Missouri State Teachers' college at Cape Girardeau, Missouri State Teachers' college at Kirksville, Northwest Missouri State Teachers' college at Maryville, Southwest Missouri State Teachers' college at Springfield, Central Missouri State Teachers' college at Warrensburg and the Kansas City Teachers' college.

St. Louis Newspaper Woman Dies

ST. LOUIS, April 14—(P)—Miss Edna McGrath, veteran St. Louis newspaperwoman who wrote under the pen name "Betty Boyd," died yesterday after an illness of several months. She was 65.

She was the daughter of the late Michael K. McGrath, secretary of state of Missouri from 1875 to 1889. Miss McGrath's long career included service with both the Globe-Democrat and Post-Dispatch.

Shortages Hit Schools

ST. LOUIS, April 14—Lessons will have to be done correctly the first time by St. Louis school children. The reason? No more rubber erasers.

But the shortage isn't limited to erasers. Supply Commissioner James J. Lee of the board of education said that neither were bids received for needles for economic students, coping saws for manual training classes or for 50,000 pounds of galvanized steel for repair work.

Uncle El

It probably won't be too much of a shock to learn that the Youth Division of OGD, which was one of Mrs. Roosevelt's pets, has passed out quietly. Looks like the new OGD management was so ashamed of it they didn't even provide a public funeral.

They Were Play Characters; Not Real

ST. LOUIS, April 14—(P)—Herman A. Goldwasser has dropped his suit over "Helen" (nom de postcard of a press agent), "Claudia" (a play), and a publicity stunt that backfired.

Goldwasser, a traveling salesman, asked $2,999 damages last February, alleging his wife had misunderstood a postcard, signed "Helen," inviting him to "meet Claudia when she comes to St. Louis." The card said John Golden would introduce him.

Golden is the producer of "Claudia." He was named defendant in the suit.

FDR Considers A National Labor Policy

Knox Believes Suspension 40-Hour Week Impracticable

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—Secretary of the Navy Knox told Congress today that suspension of the 40-hour work week law would result "only in confusion and delay," opposed a flat percentage limitation on war profits and urged a cessation of industrial disputes over the closed shop issue.

He said there was no need for labor legislation so far as the navy was concerned.

The secretary hinted that President Roosevelt soon might lay down a national labor policy, saying he "wouldn't be surprised" at such action.

He advocated freezing of the present union status in industry for the duration of the war but argued that it should be done by voluntary agreements with Congress waiting at least 30 or 60 days before taking any legislative action toward that end.

Question of Wages

Knox told the House Naval committee flatly that he thought the matter of changing the 40-hour week was only a question of wages and would mean a ten per cent cut in the income of workers.

He urged for both industry and labor a "psychological appeal" to stimulate production through patriotism, rather than having Congress enact legislation, and expressed belief that the force of the profit motive was diminishing and "would further diminish as the war continued."

Called to testify on the Smith-Vinson bill which would put a six per cent limit on war profits and suspend the 40-hour week law and freeze the closed shop status.

Reduction In Highway Force

JEFFERSON CITY, April 14—(P)—George H. Davis, highway commission chairman, said today the highway department's number of employees would be off 330 from its December high by the start of next month.

On Dec. 1 there were 1,681 employees and on May 1 the number will be 1,351.

The commission, now in the midst of a retrenchment program to make financial ends meet, already has granted leaves of absence to 185 employees so that they could enter military forces or war industries.

Davis said the safety bureau's work for this year would be restricted and that department's finances would be cut $50,000, leaving it about $30,000 for the year.

The publicity department—now staffed by a score of employees—will be reduced to one man. Reduction in that department may affect the issuance of road maps, although this year's map already has been printed.

Davis said the retrenchment program would not force the closing of any of the department's 10 division headquarters scattered over the state.

Indications were that transfers of employees to war industries might solve the personnel problem.

Former Fire Chief Paul Seventy-four On Wednesday

W. H. Paul, for many years, chief of the Sedalia fire department, now at the Masonic home, 5351 Delmar, St. Louis, will observe his 74th birthday anniversary Wednesday, April 15.

A number of his Sedalia friends are remembering him with birthday cards or greetings.

Sedaliens Find Florida Nights A Little Chilly

Field Exercises In Southern Land Something New

The following communication, received from the public relations department of the 128th field artillery, was written by Jack Reuter, a member and formerly with the Sedalia Capital:

"It's not a vacation on the beaches for Sedalia's hardy men of the field artillery at Camp Blanding, Florida, but instead a vigorous training schedule.

"Field exercises in the lake spotted country of Florida presents a new problem to the organization and will serve to better equip them to be ready for action in any kind of terrain.

"The boys from Sedalia, were surprised to find the Florida nights so chilly. A few days of warm sunshine, however, promised that summer weather was only a few days away and swimming in the large Kingley lake near the camp would soon be their favorite pastime.

Service Club Near

"Speaking of recreation, however, just across the street from the regiment is a large service club equipped with a complete soda fountain, a large library with a good selection of books and magazines to pick from and plenty of writing tables and other conveniences. Nearby is a large theatre with first run pictures.

J. M. Bailey, city clerk for the past six years, presented his resignation to the members of the council, at its regular meeting Monday night. Mr. Bailey was appointed by Mayor J. H. Bagby, and he was approved by the council then serving. His plans for the future are not definitely completed. Mr. Bailey said after the meeting, and he was not ready to make them known at this time.

Mr. Bailey said he would assist the new appointee in familiarizing him with the work.

An ordinance, providing for the installation of five fire hydrants was read for the first time, and will be acted on at a later session. The locations are, Third and Limit, Broadway and Limit, Eleventh and Limit, Fourteenth and Limit, and Eighteenth and Montgomery.

An application for a renewal of a license to sell 5% beer, made by S. Urban, was held up. The license issued by the state to Mr. Urban, for the operation of the Kentucky club, 217 West Main street, was suspended for a period and the aldermen felt that under these conditions they should not issue a license.

Mayor-Elect A. H. Wilks and "Bob" Overstreet elected alderman of the fourth ward were at the meeting as observers.

Bird Arrives On Schedule

ST. LOUIS, April 14—(P)—For two days each year, zoo director George P. Vierheller doesn't need a calendar to know the date. A birdie tells him.

For the seventh straight year, the bird, a brown thrasher, has returned to the backyard of Vierheller's home on the same day, April 12. And if it follows its annual habit, it will leave for the south on exactly September 9.

Chest Drive Is Progressing

Committee Urges Sedaliens To Keep 'Home For Johnny'

Sedalia's Community Chest drive is on. A drive to solicit funds for four worthwhile organizations, a drive which will do away with four separate drives through the year, and prevent bothering Sedalia business men and housewives by asking them to give—four times a year. The help of every Sedalian is being solicited to make this drive a success.

"Johnny" will come marching home one of these days—but to what? Will it be to a civilian life that is as chaotic as the battle front? Or will "Johnny" your "Johnny" return to the things he knows and to a situation where he has a place?

Or, look at it another way. While he is over there fighting for people at home in a thousand towns like Sedalia, will the people at home keep their morale at a high point necessary to give him the incentive to win. Or, will the people in towns like Sedalia become hysterical and allow the steady values of a stable America, one worth fighting for, to waver?

Organizations Function

The Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Melita Day Nursery and Salvation Army are doing their part to see that "Johnny" has the moral backing, while he is over there, and that he will have something solid to which he may come marching back. These organizations are thinking of "Johnny" in their work right here in Sedalia.

These organizations need your help—they need your help badly—and you can give your help

A letter from their son, now stationed in India, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Ed T. Whitmire, route 2, Hughesville. The Pettis county youth is the first soldier from this area known to be in India.

The letter which is dated March 23, 1942, was received Monday, and states:

"Dear folks, guess you've wondered what has become of me. Well, I'm still 'kicking.' I am in India. The land of mystery, land of 370 million people and 147 different languages. Guess you wouldn't like this country, as the temperature is 110 degrees today.

A communique declared that the American note was "couched in injurious terms."

VICHY, Unoccupied France, April 14—(P)—The French government issued a statement today declaring it had rejected the "injurious terms" of a note of the United States government explaining its establishment of a consulate general in Free French Equatorial Africa, but half an hour later urgently requested correspondents to withdraw the story from publication.

NEW DELHI, April 14—(P)—Thirteen Japanese flying boats have been destroyed or damaged in a smashing RAF attack on Japan's new bases in the Andaman islands in the Bay of Bengal, the British reported today.

One of the concentration of flying boats found in the harbor at Port Blair in the Andamans was left in a sinking condition, two were set afire and the remainder were damaged, an air communique said.

NEW YORK, April 14—(P)—Old Marshal Petain has been forced to give in to German pressure. Pierre Laval has come back after a 16-month vacation as contact man No. 1 with the Nazis and the United Nations' diplomatic and food offensive, conducted by the United States, has failed.

These are the immediate results of today's developments in Vichy where the first steps toward government reorganization have been taken and where the Riom trial of five former French leaders, never charged with anything more than having laid down on the job, has been shifted, to suit the purposes of German propaganda, to an inquiry into "who caused France to go to war with Germany?"

Japs Attempt Night Attack On Corregidor

Allied Guns Sank Vessel Off The Bataan Coast

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—The War Department announced today that American-Philippine forces on the island of Cebu, although greatly outnumbered, were stubbornly resisting the Japanese in heavy fighting.

Communications between Cebu and Corregidor have been re-established, the department said. Corregidor was raided four times early today by flights of heavy Japanese bombers, and there were some casualties but only slight damage on military installations.

Both Corregidor and Fort Frank were shelled by enemy batteries from both sides of Manila Bay. Sharp skirmishes were reported in progress in the Digos area of the island of Mindanao, where American-Philippine guerrilla forces have carried out several successful raids against the Japanese in recent days.

There was nothing reported here from Bataan but a Japanese communique declared today that Japanese forces had captured 40,000 prisoners, including 15 generals, from the beginning of the Bataan offensive up to last Sunday.

Of these, it said, 6,700 were were United States (as distinguished from native Filipino) troops.

The Jap communique listed as booty: 196 guns, including heavy

May Be 'War Of Survival'

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—The "War of Survival" is the tentative choice of President Roosevelt as a name for the current war, on the basis of information passed along today to the ambassadors and ministers of the Latin American republics.

Fernando Guachalla, the Bolivian ambassador to the United States said the president had declared he had virtually selected that designation, since the survival of all humanity hinges on the outcome of the conflict.

The Latin American diplomats called on the chief executive in observance of Pan American day. Mr. Roosevelt asked for suggestions at a press conference recently.

Training Dogs For Defense Work

ST. LOUIS, April 14—(P)—Even a stray dog has a place in civilian defense.

Eight of them are being trained for police duty at city water pumping stations.

The animals will be of practical aid in guarding against sabotage, said director of public utilities Max H. Doyno.

Water Commissioner Thomas J. Skinner said other strays that wander into the plants would be enrolled for patrol work.

"Pedigreed dogs need not apply," he added. "They probably have owners hunting for them."

President Roosevelt Stays At His Desk

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—President Roosevelt decided today against tossing out the first ball at the New York-Washington game opening the American league season here but there were some 31,000 others in the crowded capital who found time to go.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said the reason Mr. Roosevelt was passing up the game could be summed up in these words: "War and work."

Two St. Louis newcomers will be making their major league debut. Ray Sanders, up from Columbus, has supplanted Johnny Mize at first base and Stan Musial pre-season pick for "Rookie of the year" honors, will be stationed in left field.

Raiders Attack Coast Towns

A NORTHEAST TOWN IN ENGLAND, April 14—(P)—Fourteen persons were killed, many others injured and considerable damage caused to residential property in German bombing attacks over scattered areas last night, it was announced today.

Most of the raiders attacked towns near the coast, but one flew inland to northwest England. The German communique reported the raids were made on the Humber river estuary, where the principal towns are Hull and Grimsby.

Eight high explosive bombs fell on one town, killing nine persons including 30 and destroying 37 homes. Four persons were killed and six injured by three bombs which smashed homes and air raid shelters in another town. Another person was killed in the adjoining countryside.

Reorganizes Vichy Under Pressure

BERN, Switzerland, April 14—(P)—Marshal Petain agreed under German pressure today to reorganize his Vichy government under pro-axis Pierre Laval for renewed collaboration with the Nazis which may lead to a diplomatic break with the United States, foreign diplomatic sources said.

Laval will return Thursday with a new title, "chief of the government," they declared.

Under the prospective reorganization, France would pass completely to the axis sphere, aged Marshal Petain, although remaining "chief of the state," would become a figurehead, and Vice Premier Admiral Jean Darlan would retain only his present post as foreign minister.

By a special law approved by Petain, the Riom trial attempting to fix military responsibility for France's defeat, has been changed to include an investigation of the political maneuvers which led France to war with Germany.

Making Study Of Missouri Utilities

JEFFERSON CITY, April 14—(P)—The Public Service Commission today began studies of the original cost of the properties of three Missouri utilities — the Springfield Gas and Electric Co., the St. Joseph Light, Heat and Power Co., and the St. Louis County Water Co.

The information, the commission said, is "to be used in any proceedings" involving the companies.

Resist Invaders On Cebu

Greatly Out Numbered Forces Battle Furiously To Hold Corregidor Island

BY ROGER D. GREENE

Associated Press War Editor

Greatly out-numbered American and Filipino troops were officially reported putting up stubborn resistance to Japanese invasion forces today on Cebu island, in the central Philippines, while Lieut.-Gen. Jonathan Wainwright's defenders of Corregidor underwent four more assaults by Japanese bombers.

The Japanese force on Cebu, 250 miles south of Manila, was estimated at 12,000.

In the battle for the approaches to India, British headquarters reported that RAF planes had destroyed or damaged 13 Japanese flying boats in a smashing attack on Japan's new bases in the Andaman islands, in the Bay of Bengal.

A War Department bulletin said that communication between Cebu and Corregidor had been re-established and that heavy fighting was in progress, with "Our troops stubbornly resisting the advance of the enemy."

Slight Damage

On Corregidor, the last major American-Philippine bastion in the battle of Luzon, the War Department said heavy Japanese bombers inflicted some troop casualties but only slight damage to military installations.

"Enemy batteries shelled Corregidor and Fort Frank from positions on both sides of Manila Bay," the communique said.

"Our guns returned the fire."

The War Department also reported sharp skirmishes on Mindanao island, 600 miles south of Manila.

Imperial Tokyo headquarters asserted today that Japan's invasion armies had captured 40,000 prisoners, including 15 generals, since the beginning of the Bataan offensive in the Philippines, while on the Burma front British headquarters acknowledged a dangerous new Japanese thrust toward the central Burma oil fields.

Nearing Oil Fields

A British communique said Japanese troops driving up the Irrawaddy river had captured the village of Migyaungye which is only 22 miles south of the Minbu oil fields.

The British also reported increasing Japanese pressure below Taunggyingyi, 90 miles northeast of prome, about midway between the British-defended right flank and the Chinese-guarded left flank of the main allied defense lines.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Editor's Note: The following is another article in the series on the crucial U. S. shipping situation.)

WASHINGTON—One of the chief criticisms insiders make against the Maritime Commission is its resistance to independent initiative and ideas. The Truman committee has a big stack of complaints from enterprising business men eager to risk their own money to build ships but unable to get a break from the Commission.

A graphic illustration of the hide-bound attitude permeating the Commission is the case of the West Stanislaus County, Calif., bean growers.

Military and civilian war chiefs consider it vital that every one on the home front be made to feel that he is playing a direct and personal part in the war effort. Every war agency spends much time and effort devising ways of stimulating this spirit of patriotic participation.

Without any spurring from Washington, the patriotic bean growers of West Stanislaus County figured out a plan to make a personal contribution to the war production program. So they wrote a letter to the Maritime Commission saying:

"You need scrap steel for ships and we farmers need an outlet for an overwhelming desire to help our country. We don't want to sell our scrap to junk dealers. We don't want anyone to make any money on it. We want to give it to the government. We are ready to make a county-wide drive to collect every available pound of scrap. We can promise to collect enough scrap to build a ship and we will deliver it to a mill and the mill can mail a check—earmarked as a contribution for more ships—to the U. S. Treasury.

"We're co-operating in the 'Food for Victory Program,' we're organized on Civilian Defense, but what we really want to do is get in on the offense."

The response to this stirring patriotic offer was a polite bucket of cold water.

In a letter to the farmers, Rear Admiral Howard L. Vickery, vice-chairman of the Maritime Commission, gave a number of picaresque reasons why the scrap offer could not be accepted. There wasn't one of these minor objections that couldn't have been easily overcome—had the Commission really wanted to bestir itself.

But the bean growers' plan would have required a little initiative on the Commission's part, so the Commission passed the buck. Vickery advised the farmers to "get in touch with the Department of Agriculture's County War Board Chairman who is familiar with the procedure to follow"—that is, to turn the scrap over to a commercial dealer.

Order Bloch To Office Duty

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—The navy announced Monday that Rear Admiral Claude C. Bloch, commandant of the 14th naval district at Honolulu, had been ordered to duty in the office of the secretary of the navy here and had been replaced by Rear Admiral David W. Bagley.

The nature of Admiral Bloch's assignment in the secretary's office was not given out.

As commander of the naval district at Hawaii, Admiral Bagley also becomes commander of the Hawaiian sea frontier and responsible for the protection of waters in the immediate vicinity of the Hawaiian islands.

Rear Admiral Bloch was one of three high army and navy officials at Pearl Harbor during the period of the Japanese attack December 7. The investigation by the Roberts committee, however, fixed full responsibility of the failure of the armed services there to be on the alert against attack on Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, commander of the Pacific fleet, and Lieutenant General Walter C. Short, the army chief there.

Demand Taking Patent Rights

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—Three senators demanded Monday that the government be given authority to seize any patent rights needed for war production, contending that as long as manpower was to be drafted, property rights could not be exempted.

The senators were Bone (D-Wash.), La Follette (Prog-Wis) and O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), co-authors of legislation which would empower the President to seize patents and license them for war production.

Bone, chairman of the patents committee, announced at the outset of hearings on the legislation that an effort would be made to determine to what extent patents may be interfering with war production.

He also made public a letter from President Roosevelt expressing interest in the hearings.

"I trust," the President wrote,

"that your committee will study the problem and help the government to formulate a wise patent policy to guide us toward that victory for democracy which we all so devoutly wish."

Suit Claims Balance Is Due On Note

Asking payment of $246 on a past due promissory note, a suit was filed in circuit court Monday by the Public Loan corporation, of Sedalia, against Frank C. Bryan and Grace P. Bryan.

The plaintiff asserts in the suit that a promissory note of $300 was issued in September, 1932, on which the defendants did not complete payment, and owed $264 plus interest since September, 1933 until the present. The corporation asks this amount and costs of the case.

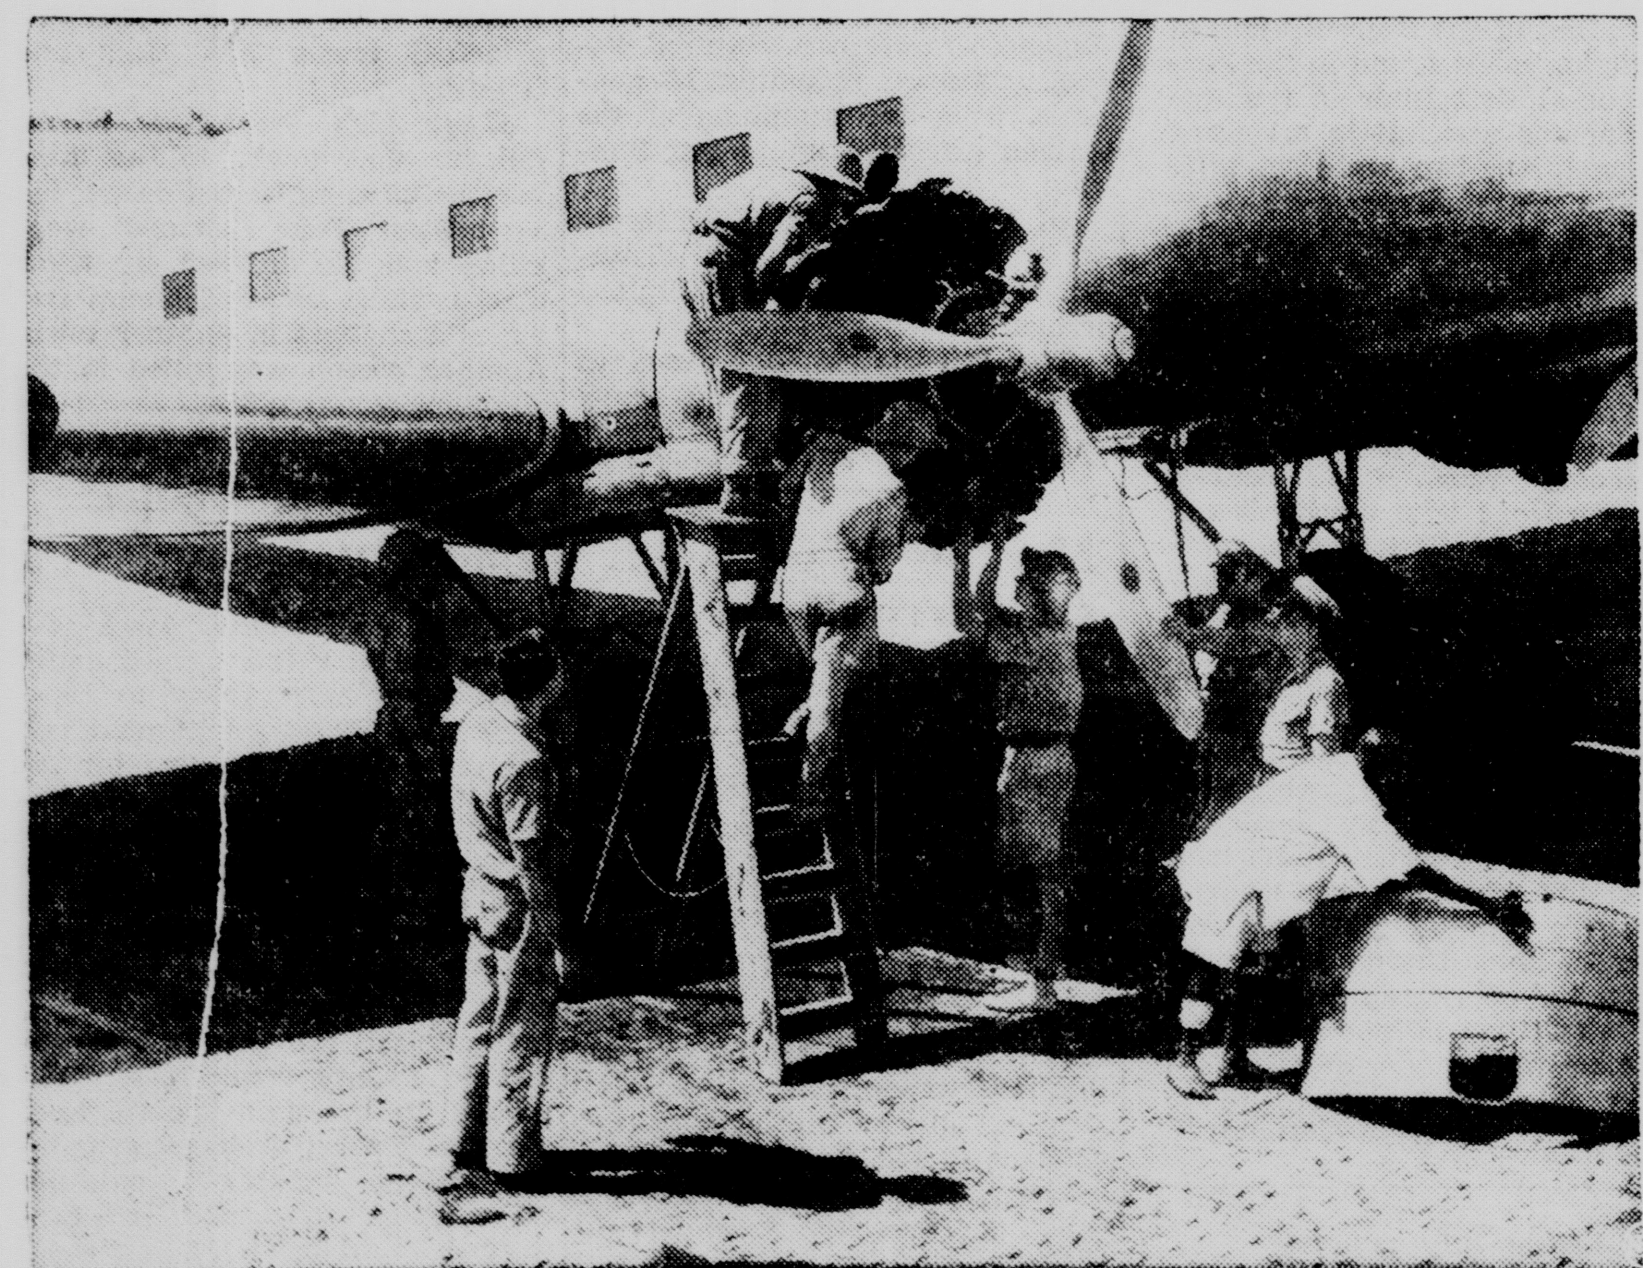

Crawford and Harlan represent the plaintiff.

Addresses were made by the Rev. H. U. Campbell, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist church, and by Dr. C. D. Osborne, representative of the Office of Civilian Defense. Philip McLaughlin, chairman of the Pettis County Red Cross chapter, was in charge of the service.

The presentation of pins to the Nurses' Aides was made by Mrs. Arthur Kahn, vice chairman of the local Red Cross chapter and head of war services. Certificates were presented by Mrs. J. F. Von Osdel, who served as instructor. Mrs. Gordon Potter, superintendent of Bothwell Memorial hospital where the group trained, presented the caps to the Aides.

The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. J. Fred King, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Abe Rosenthal, Pettis county chairman of Nurses' Aides made brief remarks concerning the work, pointing out that the Aides are now subject to emergency call for the war's duration.

The Nurses' Aides who received their caps at the ceremony, the first of its kind in Pettis county, are Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. L. R. Bailey, Mrs. George Chambers, Mrs. Kenneth Christy, Mrs. O. M. Clouser, Mrs. Herbert Kelly, Mrs. Harry Lambirth, Mrs. Mary Palmer, Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. Abe Rosenthal, Mrs. Sam Ross, Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Mrs. A. A. Studebaker and Mrs. Delbert Swain.

Claims Officer Drove Carelessly

KENNETT, Mo., April 14—(P)—Mrs. Hazel Cornell, 95-pound woman who squeezed through a hole seven by nine inches across her cell door at the Dunklin county jail to make an escape on October 17, 1939, and who three months later was given a two year term in prison for forgery, has filed suit in circuit court here against Sheriff John Williams and Former Sheriff G. D. Miles for $25,000 damages. She claims she suffered serious injuries in an automobile accident while being returned to jail here following her escape.

The petition claims that Williams, who was a deputy sheriff under former Sheriff Miles at the time of the accident was driving the car in a reckless and careless manner and the petition also names Miles on the ground that Williams was acting under his orders.

Mrs. Cornell was apprehended at Farmington. The accident occurred near Sikeston.

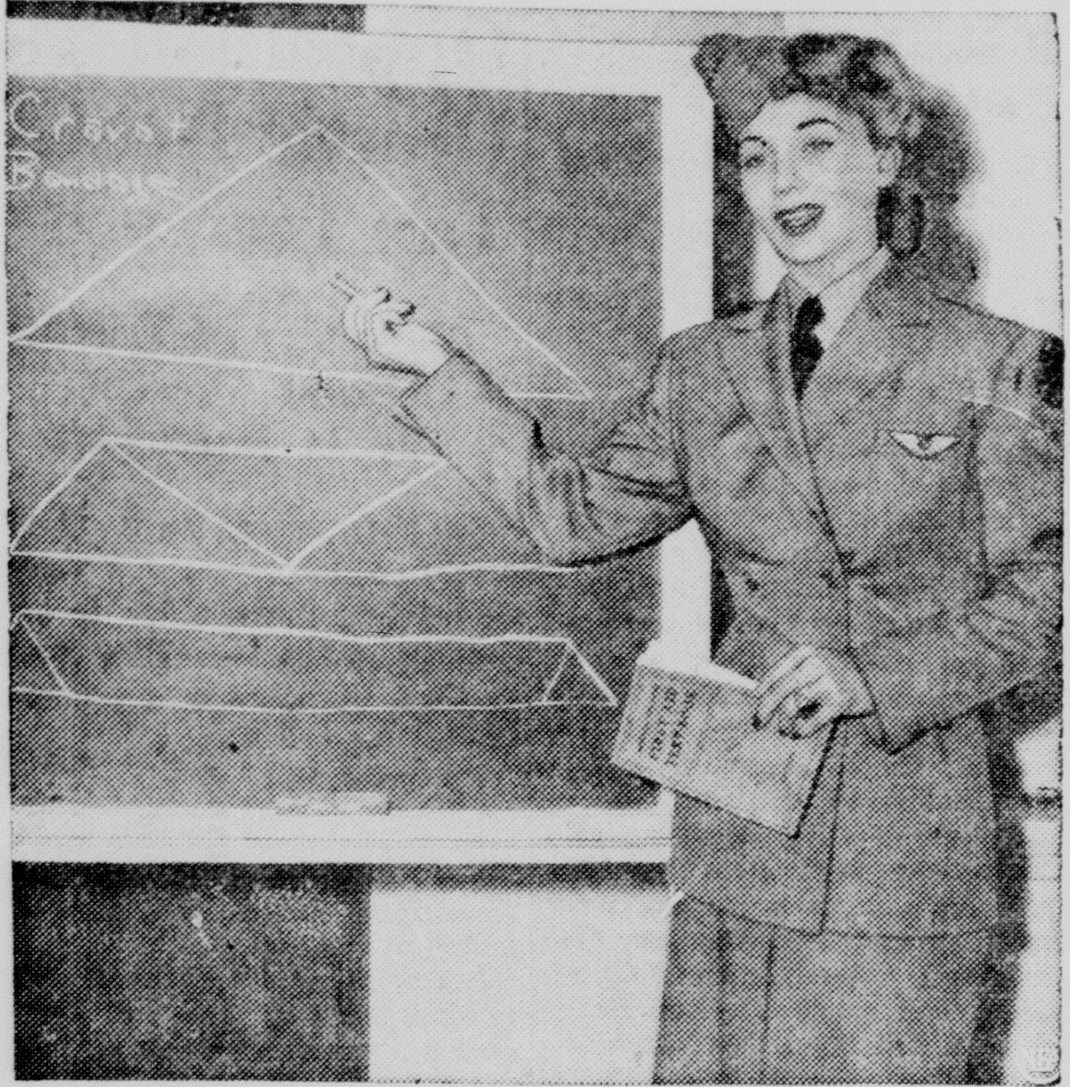

Agreements With Haiti

WASHINGTON, April 14—(P)—The United States announced Monday the signing of four agreements with Haiti, including one designed to materially strengthen defense of the Caribbean republic.

In making the announcement, the state department said the government was taking steps to install artillery for Haiti's coastal defense, provide vessels for coast guard and patrol purposes in Haitian waters, make military aircraft available to the Haitian army, overhaul and repair Haitian ships to be used for coastal patrol duties and construct a marine railway at Port-Au-Prince.

The other three agreements provide for purchase by the commodity credit corporation of Haiti's surplus cotton for the duration of the war, extension of credit to the National Bank of Haiti to strengthen dollar exchange, and a plan to increase Haitian production of sisal. The agreements were signed here April 7 by President Elie Lescot and Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles.

Reds Destroy 322 Planes Of Nazis In Week

Take Locality Of Importance In Offensive

MOSCOW, April 14—(P)—Destruction of 322 German planes in the past week, bringing the total since March 11 to 1,103, was announced Monday by the Soviet information bureau.

The midnight communique also reported capture of "a locality of great importance on the northwestern front" in one of several continuing Red army offensives which have regained some populated places.

Location of the important spot was not disclosed. A special announcement over the Moscow radio said 9,000 German soldiers had been killed and 76 tanks destroyed on that front between April 1 and 10.

Eight Down Sunday
The communique listing the terrific German plane losses did not include in the total eight reported shot down Sunday.

It said the Russians lost 314 planes during the same period the Germans were losing 1,103.

An account today in Pravda, Communist party paper, said the Germans were hurling hundreds of planes into desperate gamble for superiority in the air but were losing them at a ratio of 6 to 1 to the Russian defenders. It said Nazi air power was strained still further by its necessary use for transport because of bad ground conditions.

The Germans lost another transport in the far north, in the Barents sea the information bureau said.

Kewanee Has Costly Blaze

KEWANEE, Ill., April 14—(P)—A roaring fire swept through the heart of Kewanee's business district, Monday leaving 2 square blocks looking like bombing wreckage and causing losses which Fire Chief Al Stuhlsatz said might total $2,500,000.

Twenty buildings and 50 offices and apartments were destroyed or damaged in the four-hour, early morning blaze, the most damaging in the city's history. Smoke and water added to the loss.

Oddly enough, only three injuries were reported.

Firemen from nine nearby towns helped fight the fast spreading conflagration.

Dusk-To-Dawn Raids Made By British Fliers

Vast Expanse Is Covered In The Aerial Raids

LONDON, April 14—(P)—In one of the most prolonged and violent aerial offensives of recent months, British warplanes struck in uncounted numbers Monday at Nazi-occupied France following upon dusk-to-dawn bombing raids from Turin in Italy to the German war plant in the industrial Ruhr.

The English coast vibrated during the afternoon with the high drumming of fighter planes crossing the channel toward France against only weak enemy opposition, and incomplete official information indicated that a great pattern of destruction had been spread overnight.

"Large Scale Sweep"
The afternoon raiders made a "large scale sweep" over northern France and shot down one of the few enemy planes encountered.

In that period, 10 British bombers and a British fighter plane were acknowledged lost, thus indicating the scope of operations, but all went down over Germany, France and the low countries; not one fell in the 1,500-mile round-trip assault against Italy.

At Turin, the royal arsenal of Italy, one of Mussolini's greatest munitions works, was said to have been hit.

In the Ruhr, the Krupp munitions works at Essen was a major target. In a wide area of German-held territory enemy airdromes, docks and the like were pounded.

The Italian high command acknowledged that "several localities in northern Italy" had been attacked, but asserted there had been no damage of consequence.

The Germans, admitting raids on west and northwest Germany and over the Norwegian coast as well, likewise minimized their effects.

Germans Turn On New Pressure

By THOMAS F. HAWKINS
BERN, Switzerland, April 14—(P)—The Germans turned on new pressure Monday night seeking to promote greater collaboration between France and the axis before a threatened British-American invasion of occupied Europe materializes.

German occupation authorities were reported to have ordered suspension of travel over the demarcation line, separating occupied from unoccupied France, a procedure usually reserved for periods of tense negotiations.

Pivot man on the pro-axis team was again collaboration-minded Pierre Laval, former vice premier of the Vichy government who was reported to have conferred three times since Saturday with Marshal Petain.

German dispatches said Laval

Prices Of Stock

Fell To New Low

NEW YORK, April 14—(AP)—Moderately stepped up selling in response to adverse foreign news uncovered fresh stock market vulnerability today and prices on average fell to new lows for more than four years.
The slide started early with a fairly sharp dip in the steels, most of which registered new lows for the last year or so. Declines in this and other pivotal departments ranged from fractions to around 2 points at the close. Transactions broadened on the downswing to approximately 550,000 shares, about double the previous day's.
Other markets moved in step with stocks. Bonds lost ground generally along with speculative commodities.

J. B. Fullerton PTA President

Other Officers Elected By Smith-Cotton Organization

J. R. Fullerton was elected president of the Smith-Cotton Parent-Teacher association for the year 1942-43 at the regular meeting of that association held in the high school auditorium on Monday evening. Others officers elected were:

Mrs. L. E. Eickhoff, first vice president; Roy E. Gerster, second vice president; Mrs. Carl Urban, secretary; Bert Robertson, treasurer; and Rev. Paul Miller, chaplain. All officers with the exception of Rev. Miller were installed by Mrs. P. R. Burford, vice president of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Burford in the installation ceremony urged the parents present to do all possible to cooperate with the school program in these stressful times when education is so necessary to our youth.

Thanks From Benson

Joe Benson, principal of the Smith-Cotton high school, thanked the parent-teacher association for aid rendered this year in promoting various projects of the school. The parent-teacher association of the high school endeavors to aid students in any way possible. A few of the projects this year were: Paying manual training and other fees for deserving pupils; buying gym shoes and suits; sponsoring parent-teacher dances at a minimum cost so that students may attend; providing funds for the creative assembly which will be held in the near future, and cooperating with the Sedalia council in providing clothing and other necessities, such as books through the Community Center.

Entertaining Program

The program for the evening was in charge of Mrs. Vivian Kindred and featured two boys who placed second in the Forensic league held at Springfield and the play presented by the freshman class in the intermural contests and which won first place.

Cecil E. Swift gave a humorous declamation entitled "Eve and That Snake" and Bob Cain spoke extemporaneously on the subject given him by the audience. The first was "The PTA" and the second "Defense Bonds and Stamps."

The cast of the play, "Be Home By Midnight," were Bonnie Hyde, Bob Rayl, Gordon Capes, Marcel Kanter, and Lon Klink. The award for the best actor in the intermural plays was won by Gordon Capes of this cast. Mrs. Kindred presented him to the association following the play. The members of the parent teacher association are justly proud of the talented students who appeared on the program at this meeting.

T. H. Yount Presides

T. H. Yount, retiring president presided over the business meeting and thanked all officers, committee chairmen and members for their cooperation and aid in making this year a successful one. Draft Objector Under Arrest

WEST CHESTERFIELD, Mass., April 14—(P)—Gregory Carhart, 29, who had threatened to "shoot it out" with anyone who attempted to arrest him for failing to report to his selective service board, was placed under arrest today by three Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, who immediately took him to Boston.

The agents reported that Carhart offered no resistance.

He faced arraignment later today before a United States Commissioner in Boston on a charge of violating the National Selective Service Act by failing to report for physical examination after twice being notified by his local draft board.

Employing peaceful persuasion methods, the agents gained access to Carhart's hillside cabin earlier in the day.

They were admitted to the cabin after one of them had talked with Carhart in the cabin doorway for more than an hour, the young man holding a shotgun in the crook of his arm all the while.

Earlier, newspapermen and a neighbor, Mrs. Florence Maccom-ber, had urged Carhart to meet the FBI agents peacefully.

A former student at Lehigh University, Carhart said he would rather "die than be a hypocrite."

He asserted he was not a conscientious objector but must refuse to support the U. S. policy in the present conflict.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 14—(P)—Sixty-eight survivors from two torpedoed United States merchant vessels have reached safety here and many already are planning to head back as soon as possible to the sea they escaped.

Possible Ceiling On Flour Prices

CHICAGO, April 14—(AP)—Fear that the return of Pierre Laval to power at Vichy might indicate a further swing by France toward the Nazis and Japan's continued menace of India led to heavy liquidation sales in all grain pits today. Prices were under heavy pressure throughout the session.

Renewed reports of a possible ceiling over flour prices, the downturn in hogs and securities and uncertainty over taxation and inflation control measures in Washington all tended toward uneasiness in the trade. Wheat dropped to the lowest levels in four months.

Wheat closed at the lowest levels in four months or more, off 2 to 2 1/2 cents from Monday's final quote.

Knox said he thought the profits question could best be dealt with through the treasury's plan for sharply increased excess profits taxes.

Wants Campaign

He suggested a vigorous campaign to "arouse and acquaint" the workers in war plants, "that their own personal security rests upon the production of the tools of war."

He said that "the nation needed the type of spirit engendered immediately after Pearl Harbor," adding that a "considerable still" of that wave of enthusiasm still remains."

Knox emphasized that the loss of production since Pearl Harbor was "practically negligible."

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the committee submitted his new version of the Smith-Vinson bill.

Would Limit Profits

It would limit profits on large war contracts to $6,000 plus eight per cent of the cost of the contract.

While proposing to abolish all double pay for overtime work, Vinson's new bill would provide payment of time and one-half for hours worked in excess of 48. It would freeze the closed shop as of last March 31 except as to renewals of existing contracts.

Restrictions placed on labor include a limitation of union initiation fees in closed shop defense work to $5, with a maximum of $2 per month for dues and assessments, and a ban against denying union membership to any individual or discharging members for dues arrearage of less than two weeks.

Partially to offset the loss of double time and other premium payments, the new legislation proposes that the War Production Board put into operation a system of government-financed production bonuses not to exceed a worker's regular pay.

Japs Attempt Night Attack On Corregidor

artillery; 320 machine-guns, 500 automatic rifles, 10,000 rifles, 124 tanks and armored cars, 220 cars and other arms and munitions.

An imminent Japanese attempt to storm Corregidor by night from barges was indicated in dispatches from the island fortress.

Allies Busy

In the last 24 hours Corregidor's guns were reported officially to have sunk a medium-sized Japanese vessel off the Bataan coast, hit two Japanese tank and truck columns operating on the peninsula, and smashed a concentration of Japanese small boats at the fishing village of Mariveles.

Military observers saw in these reports indications that the Japanese were massing for an assault, probably just before dawn on the first night that rain blacks out the waters between Corregidor and the mainland. The rainy season starts within the next few days.

Trying To Land

Although the War Department communique late yesterday made no mention of the type of the Japanese vessel sunk off Bataan or its exact position, it was considered possible the ship was a motor barge carrier attempting to get safely inside Manila Bay with additional boats for a landing attempt.

In the assault the Japanese would be able to come from both the Bataan shore and the Cavite shore of the bay. Troop-carrying barges would be given close support by military patrol craft armed with small cannon. Such patrol boats already have been reported operating in the bay.

Weather Conditions Important

The assault force itself would consist of both infantry and light artillery. Typical Japanese tactics would call for the boats to converge on the island after intensive air or artillery bombardment or both, depending on weather conditions.

General Wainwright reported last night that Corregidor was under almost constant fire of Japanese artillery on both the north and south shores of the bay and it was expected that the Japanese would intensify the bombardment by bringing heavy guns into position on Bataan.

During the first half of 1940, the United States imported 138,071 pounds of lavender oil.

Byron Nelson Wins Masters' Golf Tourney

Defeats Ben Hogan,
His Close Friend,
By Lone Stroke

BY GAYLE TALBOT
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 14.—(P)—Byron Nelson, called by such an authority as Tommy Armour, the "greatest golfer I ever saw," sported his second Masters' championship today as the winter tour came to an official end and the professionals scattered to their respective home courses to see if they still had any balls and steel-shafted clubs to sell.

The slim, red-faced sharpshooter gathered himself together after taking a nerve-shattering six on the first hole to shoot a great 69 and defeat his old Fort Worth friend, Ben Hogan, by a single stroke in yesterday's play-off for what probably will be the last Masters' tournament until after the war. They had tied at the end of the regulation 72 holes at 280 strokes apiece.

The play-off between these two iron-nerved competitors, who have been battling each other ever since they were caddies, was a corker. They are among the best shotmakers in the world today, and their private duel for the Masters' was worthy of their abilities. In the end it was Hogan, the fabulous little money winner, who was forced to bow. He has not yet won a major championship.

When it was over and the money was split—$1,500 to Nelson, $800 to Hogan—the announcement was made that three more great players of another day had been nominated for golf's hall of fame. They were Walter Travis, Jim Barnes and Tommy Armour, the P. G. A. tournament manager, Frankly doesn't know.

The next big tournament will be the P. G. A. championship at Atlantic City, starting May 25, and after that will come the regular summer fixtures. About next winter, Freddy Corcoran, the P. G. A. tournament manager, Frankly doesn't know.

Baseball Taboo At Night In Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 14.—(P)—At least two and possibly four Florida East Coast baseball league teams must abandon night games for the duration.

At Miami Beach and Fort Pierce, floodlights from ball parks near the ocean front outline seagoing vessels, making them easy targets for submarines. Fort Pierce has scheduled its weekday games for 5:30 p.m., and Miami Beach at 5:45 p.m.

Similar conditions threaten night games at Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach.

There is nothing but praise for the men who have so ably conducted an epic chapter in the history of the Philippines.—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, after fall of Bataan.

The Bataan force went out as it would have wished — fighting to the end of its flickering forlorn hope. No army has ever done as much with so little.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Major League Baseball Is Opened Today

First Wartime Season
Since 1918; Air Raid
Precautions Taken

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK, April 14.—(P)—This is the day that business men neglect their business, professional men neglect their secretaries, and office boys beg off for grandmother's funeral. It's major league baseball's opening day.

Unless the weather intervenes, all 16 teams will move off together this afternoon, with something like 200,000 fans in the stands and countless others following their favorites by remote control.

Facing their first wartime season since 1918, the 67th annual National League campaign and the 42nd for the American circuit open in the most unusual setting in the history of baseball.

War Falls To Interfere

The war failed to interfere with the country's national sport because President Roosevelt bade the game go on. But the customers will have a hard time forgetting that the United States is at war.

Air raid precautions will be observed day and night at most of the major league parks. Signs and arrows will tell the fans which way to go to be safe from bombardment—information that might also be helpful to visiting pitchers in places like Yankee stadium.

Barrels of water, bins of sand and other paraphernalia unknown to ball parks in the past will be found in strategic places now. And if some clubs don't perform better than they did in spring training, they may find the customers turning to the sand piles for amusement.

The 1941 champions of both leagues open on foreign fields. The New York Yankees, owners of the American league and world series crowns, start their drive for the sixth pennant in seven years against the Washington Senators in the nation's capital.

The Brooklyn Dodgers begin the defense of their National league title against their blood enemies, the Giants, at New York's Polo Grounds.

The Yankees, top-heavy favorites to rule the junior circuit again, open with new faces at the far corners of their infield, but with all their heavy artillery still loaded.

While the Senators waded through the grapefruit league as if they owned it, they'll be gunning for the pennant with a made-over lineup that contains more question marks than a quiz program.

Baseball's contribution to the war effort is exemplified at Detroit, where a Cleveland team without Bob Feller makes its first start under young Lou Boudreau against a Detroit team without Hank Greenberg.

The Indian mound ace and the Tiger slugger, like more than 60 other major leaguers, are on a bigger team, managed by Uncle Sam.

At Chicago, the White Sox start unwrapping their pitcher's finery against the St. Louis Browns, who offer a well-balanced club in spite of numerous losses to the armed forces, all by way of enlistment.

The White Sox, as in 1941, are putting all their eggs on the pitcher's mound and depending on the hurlers and the managerial magic of Jimmy Dykes to pull them through. Chief hope of the Browns' strength lies with Junior Stephens, who must fill John Bernardino's vacated short-stop berth to keep things running smoothly.

Philly's A's Tagged To Repeat
Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics, tagged for a repeat performance in the cellar despite an overhaul job, are at Boston to open against a Red Sox team that finished second last year and could do it again if the pitchers come through.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, bolstered by the addition of such players as Arky Vaughan, Augie Galan and Johnny Rizzo to their pennant stars of 1941, begin their bid against a New York Giants crew that has spiked up with Johnny Mize, Bill Werber, Hank Leibler and a host of promising rookies.

The Giants have turned the management over to Mel Ott, who still patrols right field. They have done about everything possible to mold a winning team, but the attack failed to jell in pre-season training and it may take weeks to get them on the right track.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who are being picked by most of the experts to dethrone the defending champs, open at home against the Chicago Cubs, a jigsaw puzzle that might be a winner if all the pieces could be made to fit.

In addition to most of the hands who gave the Dodgers a run for the money in 1941, the Cardinals have everything the doctor ordered, including enough hospital supplies to patch up the wounded if they insist on knocking themselves out as they did last year.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and their revamped lineup are at Cincinnati, opening against a crew of Reds that has been in a batting slump since winning the 1940 world series.

At Philadelphia, the Phils and the Boston Braves begin a battle that is expected to last all season and land the two of them in the bottom positions in the standings.

Wide World Sports Columnist

NEW YORK, April 14.—The bands may be playing "Take me out to the ball game" today, but it's our hunch that before the season ends the tune will be "There'll be some changes made."

Baseball's first test blackout is scheduled in Cleveland May 2, when the Browns play a night game at the stadium. The Newark International League club plans to start week-day games at 4 p.m., instead of 3, so the departing crowds won't interfere with 5 p.m. factory traffic.

Vic Devincenzi, head of the Oakland club, suggests week end baseball for the Pacific Coast league with the players working on defense jobs the other five days. That's the way they're running football in England.

Under Dominion's Protective Price And Wage Ceilings. Strikes Cease

Society and Clubs

Miss Mary Ross Hoffman, whose marriage to Mr. Jerry Harlan, will take place next month, was honored at a pretty party and miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Elmer Adams and Miss Lillian Hurley, Monday night, at their home, 725 West Fourth street.

Spring flowers were used in bouquets throughout the rooms, and the pastel shades were carried out in decorations and refreshments.

The early part of the evening was spent in playing bridge, awards going to Mrs. John M. Rodeman, Miss Marian Snell, Miss Anna Gibbs and Miss Ann McClure.

Guests were then invited to have their fortunes told by a gypsy fortune teller, the honoree being the last to hear the "past, present and future." As she listened, she was directed by the guests to hiding places, where she found her gifts.
